

Impact of Sustainability Certification on Indonesian Smallholders

Rukaiyah Rafik

Head of FORTASBI's Smallholders School rukaiyahrafik@fortasbi.org

www.fortasbi.org

FORTASBI; Sustainable Palm Oil Smallholders Forum

Mission :

To increase capacity, productivity and livelihood of Independent Smallholder

To connect them to the market and bring the story from the ground

To support Independent Smallholders Group to maintenance their certificate

Scale up the impact of sustainability Certification (Access to Education, Healthy, welfare, protection and women inclusion)

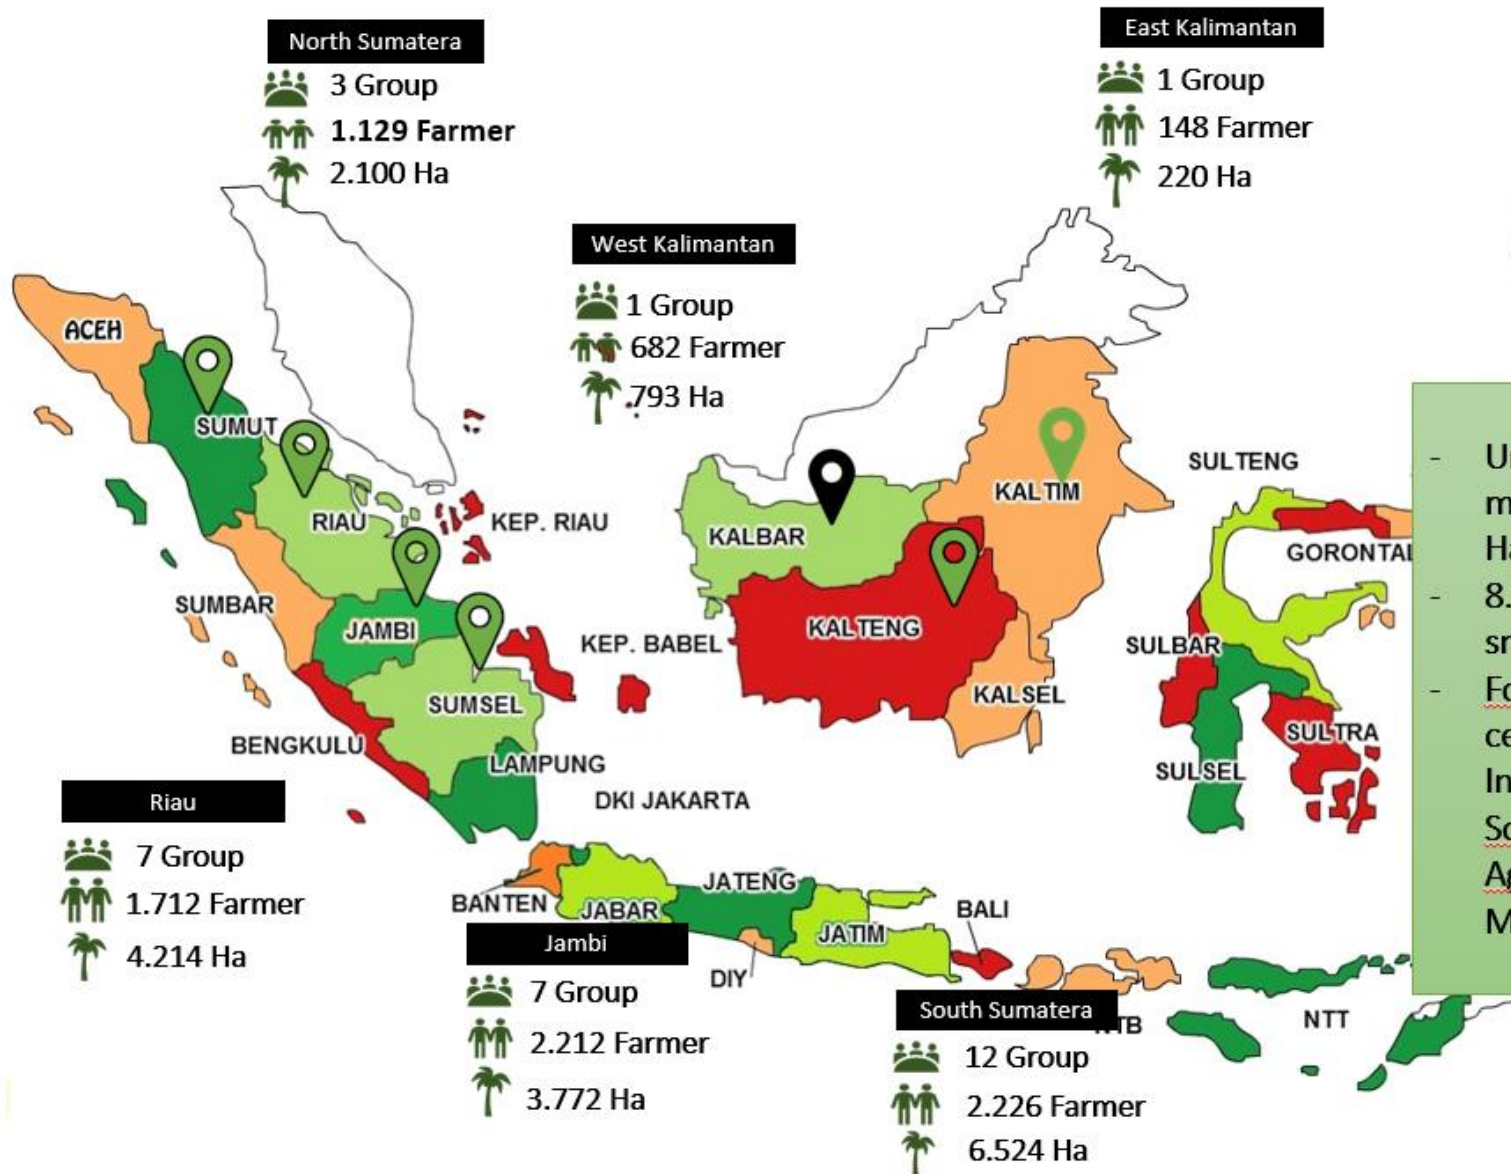

FORTASBI initiated in 2014, by Smallholders Groups, and several NGOs (WWF Indonesia, Yayasan Setara Jambi, SPKS, Inobu, Sawit Watch, SNV).

Vision:

Promoting Sustainable Palm Oil's Norm and Culture Among Independent Smallholders in Indonesia

- Until June 2021, Fortasbi have 38 Groups as member which 9.997 Smallholders and 21.382 Ha, produced 364.402 ton of FFB/Year
- 8.287 Smallholders Certified RSPO, and others smallholders certified ISPO and ISCC
- Fortasbi's Partner in supporting smallholders for certification : Yayasan Setara Jambi, SNV, WWF Indonesia, WRI, Yayasan Inobu, De Guru, GIZ, Solidaridad, LTKL, IDH, Unioleo, Unilever, Asian Agri, Cargill, PT SSMS, Indofood Agri, PTPN3, Musim Mas, IFC and Indonesian Government

Certification is Learning Process for Smallholders

UD Lestari Provide 4 Ambulance free for community

Respect to Women Worker right in Amanah Riau

Edu Tourism in KUD Tani Subur Central Kalimantan

River Protection in FPS Jambi

Fire monitoring in APKSM Central Kalimantan

Nursery Bisnis in GTS, Jambi

Koperasi Bersatu Makmur Jaya, Support Women Livelihood

Support Poor community during pandemic in APBML Jambi

Women Empowerment in APBML Jambi

KUD Sumber Rezeki, support the Education for Smallholders child

They have contributed to 9 of 17 SDG's in Village level

We call you as buyers, consumer and company, to take ACTION to support independent smallholder in implementing sustainable standard in the Ground.

Certification is one option to reduce destruction.

Thank You